

Bylaws
of Indian Wash Townhomes Association
a Colorado nonprofit corporation

Article I.

Purposes and Objects

Section 1 Purposes and Objects. The purpose for which this nonprofit corporation is formed is to govern Indian Wash Townhomes, as condominium project, situated in Mesa County, Colorado, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the condominium Declaration for Indian Wash Townhomes, the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the corporation.

Section 2. Compliance. All present or future owners are subject to the regulations set forth in these Bylaws. The mere acquisition of any of the condominium units of the project or the mere act of occupancy of said units will signify that these Bylaws are accepted, ratified and will be complied with.

Article II.

Membership

Section 1. Automatic Membership. The owner of a condominium unit, upon becoming such owner, shall be entitled and required to be a member of the corporation, and shall remain a member for the period of his ownership.

Section 2 One Membership. There shall be one membership in the corporation for each condominium unit. That membership shall be appurtenant to the condominium unit and shall be transferred automatically by a conveyance of that condominium unit to any new owner. Each membership shall be entitled to one vote in accordance with the ownership interest in the common elements appurtenant to the unit for which the vote is cast, as set forth in the Condominium Declaration. In the event that the membership is held by more than one owner the vote may be cast only as a single. unit and split or divided votes of membership shall not be allowed.

Section 3 Transfer. No person other than an owner may be a member of the corporation and a membership may not be transferred except in connection with the conveyance or transfer of the condominium unit; provided, however, that such membership may be assigned to the holder of a mortgage as further security for the loan secured by the lien of the mortgage holder upon the condominium unit.

Section 4. Person. The term "person" for the purpose of membership shall include any legal entity which has valid title to any condominium unit. Any officer, manager or partner of such entity may exercise the membership rights of the entity and shall further be entitled to serve on the board of managers and as an officer of the corporation.

Section 5. Termination. Such membership shall terminate without any formal corporate action whenever such person ceases to own a condominium unit, but such termination shall not relieve or release any such former unit from any liability or obligation incurred under or in any way connected with Indian Wash Townhomes during the period of such ownership and membership in the corporation, or impair any rights or remedies which the board of managers of the corporation or others may have against such former owner and member arising out of or in any way connected with such ownership and membership and the covenants and obligations incident thereto.

Article III.

Meeting

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the membership shall be held on the second Saturday in the month of June of each year at the hour of 1:00 p. m., unless otherwise fixed in the notice of such meeting. At the annual meeting the membership shall elect the board of managers and transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called at any time by the board of managers or upon a petition signed by a majority of the members. No business shall be transacted at a special meeting except as stated in the notice unless by consent of three-fourths of the members present, either in person or by proxy.

Section 3. Notice of Meeting. Notice of the date, place and time of the annual meeting, or any special meeting, shall be given to each member either by delivering such notice to the member personally, or by mailing the same to him by United States mail, which notice shall be given not later than ten days prior to the date of the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the membership register of the corporation, with postage prepaid thereon.

Section 4. Quorum. A majority of the members of the corporation in good standing and in actual attendance in person or by proxy at any annual or special meeting of the corporation shall constitute a quorum at such meeting for the purpose of transacting business. If a quorum be present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the members present at such meeting in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the subject matter shall be the act of the membership, unless the vote of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation, the laws of the State of Colorado, or the Condominium Declaration for Indian Wash Townhomes.

Section 5. Voting of Proxies. At all meetings of the members, a member may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. Such proxy shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation before or at the time of the meeting. No proxy shall be valid after eleven months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy.

Section 6. Cumulative Voting. Cumulative Voting for managers shall not be allowed Section 7. Allocation of Votes. There shall be one membership in the corporation for each unit. Each member shall be entitled to cast a vote in accordance with the ownership interest in the common elements appurtenant to the member's unit.

Section 8. Order of Business. The order of business at the annual meeting, and as applicable at any special meeting shall be as follows

1. Roll call,
2. Proof of notice of meeting,
3. Reading and approval of any unapproved minutes,
4. Reports of officers and committees,
5. Election of managers,
6. Unfinished business,
7. Adjournment

Article IV.

Board of Managers

Section 1. Numbers of Managers. The number of managers shall be three (3)

Section 2. Powers and Duties. The board of managers shall have the powers and duties necessary for the administration of the affairs of the corporation and for the operation and maintenance of the condominium project. Such powers and duties shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) To administer and enforce the covenants, condition, restrictions, easements, uses, limitations, obligations and all other provisions set forth in the Condominium Declaration submitting the property to the provisions of the Condominium Ownership Act of the State of Colorado.

(b) To establish, make and enforce compliance with such reasonable rules as may be necessary for the operation, use and occupancy of the condominium project with the right to amend the same from time to time. A copy of such rules and regulations shall be delivered or mailed to each member promptly upon the adoption thereof.

- (c) To keep in good order, condition, and repair all of the general and limited common elements and all items of personal property, if any, used in the enjoyment of the entire premises. Maintenance, repair, replacement, or improvement of the general or common elements and personal property, if any, shall not require the prior approval of the membership, except as required in the Condominium Declaration.
- (d) To insure and keep insured all of the insurable common elements as provided in the Condominium Declaration.
- (e) To fix, determine, levy and collect the monthly prorated assessments to be paid by each of the owners towards the gross expenses of the entire premises and by majority vote of the board of managers to adjust, decrease or increase the amount of the monthly assessments over expenses and cash reserves due the owners at the end of each operating year. To levy and collect special assessments whenever in the opinion of the board of managers it is necessary to do so in order to meet increased operating or maintenance expenses or costs, or additional capital expenses, or because of emergencies all monthly or other assessments shall be in itemized statement form and shall set forth the detail of the various expenses for which the assessments are being made, including a list of all services provided by the corporation paid for out of the regular assessment.
- (f) To collect delinquent assessments by suit or otherwise enjoin or seek damages from an owner as is provided in the Condominium Declaration and these Bylaws.
- (g) To protect and defend the entire premises from loss and damage by suit or otherwise.
- (h) To borrow funds in order to pay for any expenditure or outlay required and to execute all such instruments evidencing such indebtedness as the board of managers may deem necessary and such indebtedness shall be the several obligation of all the owners in the same proportion as their interest in the common elements.
- (i) To enter into contracts within the scope of its duties and powers.
- (j) To establish a bank account for the common treasury and for all separate funds which are required or may be deemed advisable by the board of managers.
- (k) To maintain full and accurate books and records showing all of the receipts, expenses or disbursements and to permit examination thereof at any reasonable time by each of members, and to prepare and deliver quarterly financial statements.
- (l) To prepare and deliver annually to each member a statement showing all receipts, expenses or disbursements since the last such statement.
- (m) To designate, hire and remove the personnel necessary for the operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements, including the power to engage a managing agent and to delegate to such agent the powers of the board of managers to manage the corporation on a day to day basis.

(n) To adopt a schedule of monetary penalties for violations of any of the rules and regulations of the corporation.

(o) In general, to carry on the administration of the corporation and to do all of those things necessary and reasonable in order to carry out the communal aspect of condominium ownership

Section 3. Tenure. Each manager shall hold office for a term of one year from the date of his election and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified to office, subject only to the provisions of Article IV, Section 14.

Section 4. Qualification. Except as provided in Article IV, Section 1, the managers shall be members of the corporation of an officer, director or partner of a member.

Section 5. Elections. Elections for the board of managers shall be by ballot, either oral or written, with the person receiving the highest number of ballots cast for such manager vacancy being declared elected.

Section 6, Vacancies. The board of managers is empowered to fill any vacancy that may occur in its own body, or among the officers of the corporation, and the person so appointed to such office shall hold that office until the expiration of the term of the person he succeeds.

Section 7 Compensation. No manager shall be entitled to receive any compensation as a manager of the corporation; provided, however, that he may be reimbursed for any actual expenses incurred in the performance of his duties as such manager.

Section 8. Chairman and Secretary. The president of the corporation shall be the chairman of the board of managers and the secretary of the corporation shall be the secretary of the board of managers.

Section 9 Regular Meetings. The regular meeting of the board of managers shall be held without other notice than this Bylaw immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of the members of the corporation. Additional regular meetings shall be held at a time and place to be designated in the notice of said meeting.

Section 10. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board of managers may be called by the president or any two managers. Such special meeting shall be held at a time and place designated in the notice of such meeting.

Section 11. Telephonic Meetings. One or more members of the board of managers may participate in a meeting of the board by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 12. Quorum. A majority of the board of managers, as provided in Section 1 of this Article, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board of managers. The act of the majority of the managers present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of managers, unless the act of a greater number of managers is required by these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the statutes of the State of Colorado, or the Condominium Declaration of Indian Wash Townhomes.

Section 13. Notice. Notice of any meeting of the board of managers shall be given at least three days previous thereto by written notice delivered personally to a manager or mailed to each manager by United States mail at his address as shown on the membership roll of the corporation. Any manager may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a manager at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a manager attends a meeting for the expressed purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of managers need be specified in the notice of such meeting.

Section 14. Removal. Managers may only be removed at a meeting of the membership called in accordance with the requirements of Article III, Section 2. The entire board of managers or a lesser number may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of a majority of the members present at such meeting in person or by proxy and in good standing.

Article V.

Officers

Section 1. Number. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer. Such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of managers. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the office of president.

Section 2. Tenure. The officers set forth in Section 1 of this Article shall be elected at the annual meeting of the board of managers of the corporation shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the board of managers and until their successors have been elected and qualified.
